

Her Majesty The Queen
Buckingham Palace
London SW1A 1AA
UNITED KINGDOM

May it please Your Majesty:

Recently, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge was asked if Your Majesty has ever enjoyed a slice of pizza. The Duchess was stumped. She has apparently never seen such a meal prepared in the Palace. This, in turn, led to international speculation that Your Majesty may, indeed, have never experienced this wondrous combination of cheese, sauce and dough.

Fear not, Your Majesty.

When Your Majesty is ready to experience the very finest pizza in all the land, we invite you to try a Round Table Pizza – at no charge to you! Whether it be the King Arthur’s Supreme, Montague’s All Meat Marvel, or Guinevere’s Garden Delight, a Round Table Pizza is certain to be a highlight of your 66-year reign.

When you are ready to place your order, please command your Private Secretary to reach out to us directly. It would be our pleasure to personally deliver your pizza to the Palace.

And who knows? If you enjoy it enough, perhaps one day we will even name a pizza after Your Majesty.

Humbly,
Round Table Pizza

P.S. You might also enjoy some chicken wings, or our fabled Garlic Parmesan Twists.
